MANUSCRIPT GUIDELINES/COMMENTS:

About the Journal
An interdisciplinary, peer reviewed publication, Journal of International Students is a professional journal that publishes narrative, theoretical, and empirically-based research articles, student reflections, and book reviews relevant to international students and their cross-cultural experiences and understanding.

Published quarterly, the Journal encourages the submission of manuscripts from around the world, and from a wide range of academic fields, including comparative education, international education, student affairs, linguistics, psychology, religion, sociology, business, social work, philosophy, and culture studies.

The Journal audience includes international and domestic students, faculty, administrators, and educators engaged in research and practice in international students in colleges and universities.

Areas of Emphasis: The Journal publishes the following types of articles:
• Peer Reviewed Articles (Interdisciplinary topic related to international students, between 3,500 to 7,500 words)
• Student Reflections (Study abroad, cross-cultural experiences of students, between 1,000 to 1,500 words)
• Professional Book Reviews (Reviews on the titles related to international students/cross cultural issues, between 750 to 1,200 words)
